

Title VI and language access for people with limited English proficiency

Federal Title VI obligations require recipients of federal funds to provide meaningful language access. The federal LEP site collects guidance and resources. Verify at the source.

Outside source

A public source outside this program. Check the current source before relying on it. Source: U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Coordination and Compliance Section — <https://www.lep.gov/>

Content

This program does not interpret Title VI. Before releasing a vital document, follow the current language-access requirements for qualified human review and confirm them with the person responsible for language access in your program.

Next steps

- Language access checklist — program page /library/ja-language-access-checklist

Sources

- U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Coordination and Compliance Section — The original source for this resource. <https://www.lep.gov/>