

MnCHOICES assessment and access

Governs how people are assessed for and connected to long-term services and supports.

Equity entry points

- First contact in the person's language
- Accessibility of the assessment process
- Person-centered practice and supported decision-making
- Wait times and follow-up by community

Connected areas of work

- Accessibility, language access, and inclusive operations
- Equitable policy, program, and service design